SATURDAY AUGUST 20. 1743.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Stockholm, August 16.

ON the 8th was publiſhed here the Sentence pronounced againſt Col. Troberg, accuſed of not doing his Duty in the laſt Campaign in Finland, by which he is condemned to loſe his Command, and render'd for ever incapable of enjoying any Office, either Civil or Military, under the Crown. On the 10th, which was the Day appointed for Count Lewenhaupt's Execution, and on which his Flight was diſcovered, a Reward of 20,000 Crowns was offer'd to whoever ſhould deliver him up to Juſtice. The Houſes of all his Friends and Relations were ſearch'd in the Evening, and again at an Hour after Midnight; but to no Purpoſe. Several Detachments were ſent into Scania, in order to prevent his flying into Denmark. On the 14th, in the Morning, the Captains Graman and Theomeden, who were ſent with two armed Sloops in purſuit of him, came up with a Yacht near Waxholm, about two Leagues from this City, which was bound for Dantzick. They boarded it immediately, and at their firſt Entrance diſcover'd Count Lewenhaupt, tho' diſguis'd as a Sailor. This was between 2 and 3 o'Clock, and by Noon they brought him back to this City. Yeſterday, about Eleven in the Morning, he was brought to the Place of Execution, where he ſuffer'd in the ſame manner as Baron Bodenbrocke. He died with great Reſolution, and ſaid, a little before, that the Thoughts of his Flight gave him more Uneaſineſs, than his Apprehenſions of dying. All who had, or are ſuſpected to have any Hand in his Eſcape, are arreſted, even to the Cabbin Boy of the Yacht in which he was embark'd, and a Special Commiſſion is iſſued for trying them. Sentence was Yeſterday paſs'd on General Didron, by which he is mulct a Year's Pay. The States this Morning voted the Sum of 15,000 Florins as a free Gift to the Widow of Major-General Frudenfeldt, excluſive of her Penſion as his Excellency's Widow. Three hundred of the Peaſants who were made Priſoners in the late Tumult, were Yeſterday ſent under a good Eſcort to Dalecarlia; but it was believed that one Scheldin, who acted as their Chief, would ſuffer Death. The Senators Loven and Wrangel are at length acquainted with their Inſtructions, and are to depart as To-morrow for Stralſund, in order to invite the Biſhop of Lubec hither. The Squadron which is to carry them will conſiſt of three Ships, excluſive of that in which they are to embark; and this Squadron is to be commanded by Admiral Taube. Things are ſtill here in no ſmall Perplexity; the Eſcape of Count Lewenhaupt, without ſaving him, will expoſe many other Perſons to very great Danger; the Dyet having reſolved, at the Requeſt of the Order of Peaſants, to examine it with the utmoſt Strictneſs, and to puniſh, with the utmoſt Rigour, from the higheſt to the loweſt, all who had any Concern in it.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 16. Count Teſſin, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from Sweden, has had lately ſeveral Conferences with our Miniſters, which are ſuppos'd to relate to Matters of the laſt Importance, ſince, at the Cloſe of them, his Secretary, Baron Hophin, ſet out with his Diſpatches for Stockholm. All the preparations for War that are making here, are redoubled of late; and this Morning the Gariſon of this City received Orders to hold themſelf in readineſs to march. It is to be replaced by Detachments from ſeveral Regiments that are in full March hither; but whether our Gariſon is to ſerve on board the Fleet, or to join the Land Troops that likewiſe have Orders to hold themſelves ready to march, is not determined. According to all the Diſpoſitions that are making here, the Arms will infallibly take the Field by the latter End of this Month. The four Frigates that lately return'd from cruizing on the Baltick, ſail'd again as ſoon as they had taken ſome Proviſions on board. The Fleet waits now for nothing but the laſt Orders to put to Sea. It will, 'tis ſaid, be join'd by four Fire Ships, and they are actually fitting up at the Arſenal. But againſt whom we are to act after all this, remains as great a Secret as ever.

Lisbon, July 23. The King of late recovers apace, to the great Joy of his Subjects. The French Miniſter, M. de Chavigny, having obtained Leave from his Court to return Home, in order to take care of his private Affairs, will ſet out from hence about the middle of next Month. He propoſes to make ſome Stay at Madrid, and to reach Paris by the beginning of October; ſo that if he returns hither at all, it cannot be in leſs than ten Month's time. Yeſterday we heard a great Firing for two Hours, and ſoon after we were informed, that an Engliſh Privateer had attack'd two Spaniſh Privateers in the Mouth of our River, and the latter, after a warm Engagement, thought fit to take Shelter here.

Chamberry, Auguſt 13. A few Days ago his Royal Highneſs the Infant Don Philip received Orders from the King, his Father, to force a Paſſage into Italy at all Events; in Conſequence of which, that Prince has given Orders for the March of all his Forces towards the Mountains, where they are to be joined by 20 Battalions of French. The King of Sardinia, on his Side, takes all imaginable Pains to render their Progreſs as difficult as poſſible, by blowing up of Roads, and raiſing Redoubts in all the Paſſes. On the 8th the Infant review'd his Forces at Montmelian, and found they conſiſted of 22 Battalions, ſix Regiments of Horſe, and two of Dragoons. His Royal Highneſs dined with the Marquis de la Mina, and returned in the Evening to this City; in which there are now no more than 150 Men, which ſerved for his Guard. There never was a Country more heavily oppreſſed than this; the Spaniſh Court has thought fit to impoſe on us an extraordinary Tax of 1,700,000 Livres; to raiſe which, we have had Recourſe to a Capitation, which extends to Children of 7 Years old. A Gentleman pays 25 Pence for his Head, a Citizen 20, a Tradeſman 15, and Peaſants, and other People, 10 Pence each. We have, beſides, Orders to threſh out all our Corn immediately, and are forbid to make uſe of the Straw for littering our Horſes, under very ſevere Penalties.

Vienna, Auguſt 14. The Queen, who return'd hither Yeſterday from Schonburn, felt herſelf a little indiſpoſed; about Noon ſhe grew worſe, and at Three was happily deliver'd of a Princeſs, who was Baptized, about Eight in the Evening, by the Pope's Nuncio, by the Name of Maria-Elizabetha-Joſephina-Joanna-Antoinetta: Her Majeſty is as well as can be expected in her Condition. Count Oſtein, Brother to the Elector of Mentz, arrived here on the 10th; and it is ſince reported, that the Troops of the Empire will March towards the Rhine, in order to favour the Enterprizes of Prince Charles when he ſhall have paſſed that River. Several Companies of Croats, Pandours, and Schavonians, have lately paſſed through this City; who, as ſoon as they had received Arms and Coaths, continued their March towards the Rhine. There arrive daily French Diſſerters here, who have Paſſports given them, in order to their going farther. The Prince of Birkenfeldt is declared Lieutenant-General of her Majeſty's Forces, and it is thought that the Prince of Waldeck will alſo enter into our Service.

Dreſden, Auguſt 18. The Day before Yeſterday a grand Council of State was held at Mauritzburg, on Matters of the laſt Importance; the Ruſſian, Auſtrian, and Dutch Miniſters, who were invited thither, on their Return diſpatch'd each a Courier to his reſpective Court. It is generally apprehended, the Buſineſs of this Conference was the marching our Troops, in Conjunction with thoſe of Ruſſia, for the Service of the Queen of Hungary. According to our laſt advices from Egra, Count Kollowrath has abſolutely refuſed to treat further with the French Governor.

Berlin, Auguſt 20. The Earl of Hindford, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Great Britain, received, on the 10th of this Month, Diſpatches of ſuch Importance, that he thought proper to ſet out immediately for Great Glogau, in order to meet his Majeſty, and communicate the Contents of them. On the 11th the Marquis de Valori, the French Miniſter, received a Courier from his Court, in Conſequence of which, he demanded a Special Audience, and received it on the 14th. There is certainly ſomething of the utmoſt Conſequence tranſacting here, his Majeſty conferring Morning and Evening with the Miniſters and General Officers moſt in his Confidence.

Franckfort, Auguſt 22. A Report prevails here, that his Imperial Majeſty, after having maturely weighed the Propoſitions made him by the Allies, had come to a Reſolution to reject them, and had gone ſo far, as to declare, that he would risk whatever might happen with reſpect to his perſonal Concerns, rather than do any thing that might involve the Empire in a War at preſent. It is believed, that his Imperial Majeſty was prevailed upon to take this Reſolution by the Count de Lautrec, who had an Audience a few Days ago, wherein he aſſured the Emperor, that the King his Maſter, would not ſpare either his Money, or his Subjects, in Support of his Cauſe, and would never lay down his Arms, till he had obtained for him full Satisfaction. But perhaps all this News wants Confirmation.

Mentz, Auguſt 23. The Day before Yeſterday the Auſtrian Forces in the Army of the Allies paſs'd the Rhine; the next Day the Engliſh and Hanoverian Troops did the ſame; as did the Heſſians alſo this Morning. The King of Great Britain has his Quarters here at the Chanter Houſe, thoſe of the Duke of Cumberland are at Weiſenau, and the Earl of Stair has taken up his Reſidence at Laubenheim. It is thought the Army will remain here till ſuch time as they have certain Intelligence, that Prince Charles of Lorrain has likewiſe paſs'd that River. Our late Advices from his Camp ſay, that Baron Trenck, notwithſtanding all the Care of the French, had put Alſace under Contribution; and had actually received 210,000 Livres, in part of a Million, which, as he expreſſes it in his Patents, is all that out of Modeſty he demanded of that Country. As for Col. Menzel, he is actually in Lorrain, and, it is thought, will penetrate farther, ſince the laſt time he dined with Lord Carteret, he ſaid, after drinking a Glaſs of Champain, Your Excellency's Wine is the beſt I ever taſted, but I intend to try whether I can't get better upon the Spot.

Hague, Auguſt 27. The Foreign Miniſters here, have received Advice, that the Army of the Allies had entirely paſſed the Rhine; and that it was believed they would wait to ſee whether Prince Charles would be able to eſtabliſh his Quarters in Alſace; and in caſe he was, would continue their March towards the Moſelle; but if he ſhould find himſelf too weak, they will then join and ſupport him. There arrived here lately Mr. Anthony Oldenbourg, Natural Son to Prince Chriſtian, Brother to Frederick IV. King of Denmark, who, after a ſhort Stay to ſee the remarkable Places in this Country, will ſet out for London.

AMERICA.

Philadelphia, June 16. Yeſterday ſail'd for a Cruize againſt his Majeſty's Enemies, the Ship Wilmington, commanded by Capt. John Sibbald, of about 300 Tons, 24 Carriage, and 24 Swivel Guns, and 150 ſtout able Hands, full of Vigour and Reſolution.

And this Day ſail'd her Conſort the Schooner George, commanded by Capt. William Dowel, carrying 12 Carriage, and 12 Swivel Guns, and 100 ſtout Men.

New-York, June 20. Friday laſt arrived here the two Privateer Concert Sloops, called the Caſtor and Pollux, commanded by Capt. Wentworth and Capt. Woolford, and brought in with them two Spaniſh Brigantine Prizes, which they took the 27th of April laſt, in Sight of the Town and Harbour of La Vera Cruz. They alſo took a Sloop, which they gave to the Priſoners, after taking out her Cargo. The Cargoes taken conſiſts of Gunpowder, Cocoa, tann'd Leather, Flour, Soap, and dry Goods, with 10 or 12,000 Pieces of Eight; but as ſome of the Papers had been thrown overboard, the Particulars of the whole are not yet known.

On Friday laſt arrived here Capt. Jacob Kierſtead, from Jamaica, in 23 Days, who brings an Account, that Capt. Hunter, of this Place, was taken by a Spaniſh Privateer, off of Port Morant, three Days after he left Port Royal, in Jamaica, and carried into St. Jago de Cuba. And that the Spaniſh Privateers are grown ſo inſolent, that they have cut two Sloops out of a Harbour on the North Side of Jamaica, tho' there were 17 Men of War in Port-Royal Harbour, but in their endeavouring to carry them off, run them both a-ground, where they were obliged to leave them.

The brave Capt. Warren is fallen down to the Narrows, in order for another Cruize againſt the Spaniards; the Men are all brave and hearty, and wiſh for nothing but to meet with ſome of the Dons.

We are here very much infeſted with Caterpillars, and Worms of an uncommon Kind, which have done abundance of Miſchief about this City; in one Farm eſpecially, where they have deſtroyed a Field of Barley upwards of a Mile in length.

New-London, June 23. Yeſterday one Nathaniel Richards and Sarah Leffingwell, of Norwich, were whip'd, and branded on the Forehead with the Letter A, and a Rope ty'd about their Necks, for the Sin of Adultery.

'Tis very melancholly to ſee what vaſt Quantities of Worms is among the Graſs and Grain, and threaten much Damage.

June 30. Laſt Saturday Capt. Rouſe, in the Privateer Young Eagle, arrived here from a Cruize. His Prize Ship arrived Yeſterday.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handsomness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, fine, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly take away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughness, Morphew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become so incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as to cause Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, a genuine Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing like Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red or wan, to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and most charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the least Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lawn, and is very agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it, under various other Names, beware therefore of such Impositions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to the Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions and no where else in England.
